Corneal and Cataract Surgery: Clinical Updates

Message from the Guest Editor

The Journal of Clinical Medicine is pleased to announce a forthcoming Special Issue dedicated to showcasing the latest advancements in corneal and cataract surgery. We invite the members of the scientific community to contribute their valuable research and insights to this Special Issue, which aims to provide a comprehensive overview of cutting-edge developments in these critical fields. We welcome original research articles, reviews, and clinical studies that explore novel techniques, technological innovations, and outcomes in cataract and cornea surgery. The topics of interest include, but are not limited to:

- Surgical Techniques in Cataract and Cornea Procedures;
- Advances in Intraocular Lens Technology;
- Novel Pharmacological Approaches for Postoperative Care;
- The Integration of Artificial Intelligence in Surgical Planning;
- Outcome Assessment and Patient Satisfaction;
- Complication Management and Prevention;
- Emerging Trends in Corneal Transplantation.
