

Special Issue

Clinical Applications of Cardiac Imaging: 2nd Edition

Message from the Guest Editor

With the success of our first Special Issue, entitled “Clinical Application of Cardiac Imaging”, we are launching a new Special Issue, entitled “Clinical Applications of Cardiac Imaging: 2nd Edition”, which continues to report on clinical research. Cardiac imaging is a pivotal tool in the diagnosis, management, and treatment of cardiovascular diseases. Its non-invasive or minimally invasive nature makes it a safe and effective option for patients, possessing considerable accuracy compared to invasive techniques. The Special Issue explores various imaging techniques and their application in the diagnostic and prognostic assessment of cardiovascular diseases. It further discusses the role of multimodality imaging in guiding therapeutic management and interventions, such as cardiac catheterization, electrophysiology studies, and heart surgery, addressing topics such as echocardiography, cardiac magnetic resonance imaging, and computed tomography. Overall, this Special Issue aims to provide a platform for researchers to share their latest findings related to the current state of cardiac imaging and its clinical applications.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

There has been an explosion of gene and target based research and therapeutics in the multitude of fields that compose clinical medicine. The Journal of Clinical Medicine's (JCM) staff and editorial board are dedicated to providing cutting edge, timely, and peer-reviewed articles covering the diverse subspecialties of clinical medicine. The journal publishes concise, innovative, and exciting research articles as well as clinically significant articles and reviews that are pertinent to the myriad of disciplines within medicine. The articles published are relevant to both primary care physicians and specialists. The journal's full-texts are archived in PubMed Central and indexed in PubMed. Please consider submitting your manuscripts for publication to our journal and check us out on-line!
