New Perspectives and Innovations in Critical Illness

Message from the Guest Editors

The Journal of Clinical Medicine is pleased to launch a Special Issue entitled “New Perspectives and Innovations in Critical Illness.” This Special Issue showcases emerging concepts, technological advances, and evolving clinical strategies that are reshaping modern intensive care. We invite original research, narrative or systematic reviews, experimental insights, and interdisciplinary contributions for improving patient outcomes and shaping the future landscape of critical care medicine. Thank you again for your support. I look forward to continuing our collaboration and taking to the next steps for the Special Issue.
