Recent Advances of Kidney Transplantation

Message from the Guest Editors

We would like to invite you, as a prestigious group of leaders in renal transplantation, to participate in this effort by showcasing your work, your experience, and your thoughts. Areas of interest in this Special Issue include:

- 1) Translational research in renal transplantation;
- 2) Challenges in living donor renal transplantation;
- 3) The use of extended criteria grafts in renal transplantation;
- 4) The current status of non-heart beating renal transplantation;
- 5) Challenges and opportunities with the use of pumps in renal transplantation;
- 6) Transplant system organizational issues;
- 7) The effect of the pandemic in renal transplantation;
- 8) The role of telemedicine and the future of renal transplantation;
- 9) 3D printing and artificial intelligence in renal transplantation;
- 10) Newer immunosuppression medications and protocols.

All of the above are only some of the possible suggestions. We look forward to hearing from you and working with you in making this Special Issue a key resource of information for our colleagues, thus improving our patients' lives.
