Estuaries, Coasts, and Seas in a Changing Climate

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue entitled “Estuaries, Coasts, and Seas in a Changing Climate” originates from the corresponding sessions at the 7th IAHR Europe Congress (<https://www.iahreuropecongress.org/>). Topics include hydrodynamics, transport and morphodynamic processes, coastal structures, coastal vulnerability in a changing climate, coastal and swash zone morphodynamics, coastal aquifers under climate change, hybrid solutions for coastal and offshore applications in the context of climate change, etc. Contributions may include theoretical analysis, numerical modeling, experimental methods, and field measurements.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Journal of Marine Science and Engineering (JMSE, ISSN: 2077-1312) focuses on research in the fields of Ocean Engineering, Coastal Engineering, Physical Oceanography, Geological Oceanography, Marine Biology, and Marine Environmental Science. It publishes reviews, regular research papers, and short communications, as well as Special Issues on particular subjects. Our aim is to encourage scientists to publish their experimental and theoretical results in as much detail as possible. There is no restriction on the maximum length of the papers.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed with Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Ei Compendex, GeoRef, Inspec, AGRIS, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Engineering, Marine) / CiteScore - Q2 (Ocean Engineering)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 16.5 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.5 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the second half of 2025).
