Selected Papers from the 3rd Australian New Zealand Marine Biotechnology (ANZMBS) Conference

Message from the Guest Editors

Marine biotechnology is rapidly gaining recognition in providing the innovative drive for scientific solutions and products across a range of sectors including biomedical, agrichemical, aquaculture, and environmental industries.

The 3rd ANZMBS conference will be held at UNSW Sydney Australia on May 20–22nd 2019. This conference aims to (1) facilitate collaborations between scientists, technologists, investors, government, industry, and the community; (2) inform educators and policymakers; and (3) promote science, knowledge exchange, and technology development. Authors are invited to submit papers on a wide range of topics related to marine biotechnology including, for example, the following:

- Natural products and drug discovery
- Aquaculture and fisheries
- Algal bioproducts and processes
- Ecosystem monitoring
- Marine ecosystem engineering
- Environmental remediation
- Marine sustainability and restoration
- MARINE biotechnology policy and consultation
