Message from the Guest Editors

Coastlab18 is organized under the auspices of the International Association of Hydro-Environment Engineering and Research (IAHR). This Special Issue presents a selection of papers from the conference. The papers give insight on theoretical and practical aspects related with physical modelling in the field of coastal and ocean engineering. Coastal and ocean structures, breakwaters, revetments, laboratory technologies, measurement systems, coastal field measurement and monitoring, combined physical and numerical modelling, physical modelling case studies, tsunamis and coastal hydrodynamics are the main topics covered in this Special Issue. Keywords

- Laboratory technologies
- Measurement systems
- Coastal and ocean structures
- Combined physical and numerical modelling
- Physical modelling case studies
- Scale effects and uncertainty analysis
- Wave synthesis, generation and analysis

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Journal of Marine Science and Engineering (JMSE, ISSN: 2077-1312) focuses on research in the fields of Ocean Engineering, Coastal Engineering, Physical Oceanography, Geological Oceanography, Marine Biology, and Marine Environmental Science. It publishes reviews, regular research papers, and short communications, as well as Special Issues on particular subjects. Our aim is to encourage scientists to publish their experimental and theoretical results in as much detail as possible. There is no restriction on the maximum length of the papers.
