

Special Issue

Hybrid Systems for Marine Energy 2023

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue follows up from the successful first installment, "Hybrid Systems for Marine Energy Harvesting". Technologies to harvest marine renewable energies (MREs) are at a pre-commercial developmental stage, and significant R&D progress is still required in order to improve their competitiveness. However, hybridization has significant potential to foster synergies among the different harvesting technologies and resources. In this Special Issue, hybridization is understood in three different manners. This Special Issue will publish cutting-edge research on the development of hybrid technologies for MRE harvesting, providing a rapid turn-around time for reviewing and publishing, to disseminate articles freely for research, teaching, and reference purposes.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The Journal of Marine Science and Engineering (JMSE, ISSN 2077-1312) is an international peer-reviewed open access journal which provides an advanced forum for studies related to marine science and engineering. The journal aims to provide scholarly research on a range of topics, including ocean engineering, chemical oceanography, physical oceanography, marine biology and marine geosciences. We invite you to publish in our journal sharing your important research findings with the global ocean community.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed with Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Ei Compendex, GeoRef, Inspec, AGRIS, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Engineering, Marine) / CiteScore - Q2 (Ocean Engineering)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 15.6 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 1.9 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).
