

Special Issue

Advanced Technologies for Maritime and Underwater Archaeology—2nd Edition

Message from the Guest Editors

Underwater cultural heritage (UCH) is a crucial asset for the knowledge of humankind's history and traditions. It is tangible evidence of past human life that has to be protected for ensuring its accessibility to present and future generations. The documentation, preservation, and dissemination of UCH is an open challenge that is strongly interdisciplinary because it involves collaboration among various experts from different sectors, such as archaeology, geology, biology, marine science, engineering, robotics, computer science, and numerous other disciplines. This Special Issue intends to collect original and high-quality research articles and technical notes devoted to the knowledge of underwater materials and promote innovative methodologies, applications, and emerging technological solutions on the subject of materials that lie underwater.
