Application of Statistical and Mathematical Techniques in Personalized Medicine and Healthcare

Message from the Guest Editor

We are pleased to announce the launch of a Special Issue entitled "Application of Statistical and Mathematical Techniques in Personalized Medicine and Healthcare". This Special Issue will focus on the innovative and impactful applications of statistical, mathematical, and artificial intelligence techniques in the fields of medicine and healthcare. We welcome submissions (reviews or original research articles) that showcase the use of advanced analytical methods in areas such as clinical trials, medical imaging, epidemiology, healthcare resource allocation, and predictive modeling. By highlighting the latest research and cutting-edge methodologies in this rapidly evolving field, this Special Issue aims to foster collaboration and the exchange of ideas among researchers, practitioners, and policymakers in the healthcare domain.
