Message from the Collection Editor

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue focuses on the broad topic of “Business Performance” and includes novel research on the emerging challenges that are currently occurring, especially as a result of the pandemic context, in terms of corporate governance and corporate responsibility, innovation, intellectual capital, and green and sustainable finance as key drivers for business performance and excellence, successful business process management, and quality management.

Theoretical and empirical articles on the topic of corporate responsibility, innovation, intellectual capital, and green and sustainable finance as key drivers for business performance and excellence are welcome. Contributions focusing on the implications of both tangible and intangible assets, corporate governance and corporate responsibility, and green and sustainable finance as key drivers for business performance and excellence, successful business process management, and quality management are encouraged.
