Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

Token offerings have gained prominence among entrepreneurs in relation to acquiring venture capital from crowd investors leveraging blockchain technology. This Special Issue invites interdisciplinary research on token offerings from finance, entrepreneurship, strategy scholars, among others. In particular, research that uses the recently established Token Offerings Research Database \(TORD\) is encouraged. This Special Issue aims to help consolidate the existing body of knowledge and set out the agenda for future research on token offerings.
