Advancing Research in International Finance

Message from the Guest Editor

We encourage submissions that address, but are not limited to, the following topics:

- Global Financial Stability: exploring the effects of financial crises, including the roles of central banks and monetary policy in stabilizing international markets.
- Sovereign Debt Markets: examining the risks associated with government bonds in advanced and emerging economies, including currency, liquidity, interest rate, and default risks.
- Emerging Markets and Global Finance: highlighting the unique challenges faced by emerging markets, including their roles within the global financial architecture and bond yield determination in high-risk environments.
- Cross-Border Investments and Financial Integration: investigating factors that shape cross-border capital flows, investor demand for bonds, and the effects of bond index inclusions on prices and liquidity.
- Quantitative Easing and Monetary Policy: analyzing the impact of central bank balance sheets on sovereign bond markets, with comparisons between quantitative easing (QE) during the 2008–09 Great Financial Crisis and the COVID-19 pandemic response.
