

Special Issue

Green Finance and Corporate Strategy: Challenges and Opportunities

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue aims to explore the evolving relationship between green finance and corporate strategy, with a focus on the opportunities and challenges that firms face in integrating environmental objectives into core business decisions. We welcome the submission of original research that examines how firms adapt their corporate strategies to align with green finance instruments, such as green bonds, sustainability-linked loans, carbon markets, ESG indices, and climate risk disclosures. This Special Issue will address the following topics in particular:

- Strategic adaptation to ESG regulations and sustainability disclosure requirements;
- The role of green finance in corporate innovation, investment, and risk management;
- Sectoral and regional differences in green finance implementation;
- Financial markets' influence on corporate sustainability performance.
