Entrepreneurial Initiatives and Strategic Management: The Quest for Value

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue “Entrepreneurial Initiatives and Strategic Management: The Quest for Value” welcomes high-quality manuscripts on various aspects of the strategic management of new ventures. We invite original submissions dealing with issues like opportunity creation, blue ocean strategies, disruption, scale-up or innovative ecosystems; but also for entrepreneurs’ intent and team resilience. Analyses including the role of other stakeholders (e.g., VCs, Business Angels or public supports) in the strategic process are also welcome. We are interested at first in empirical research but conceptual, theoretical, methodological, and literature review studies can be accepted too.
