Special Issue

International Financial Markets and Risk Finance

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue welcomes empirical and theoretical papers that study contemporary issues in international finance and risks. Suggested topics include, but are not limited to, international investments, cross-listing, market volatility, and risk management, which improve our understanding on the development and connection of international financial markets. Studies may involve sustainability in finance and financial challenges of critical events, such as COVID-19 and the Russia–Ukraine conflict.
