

Special Issue

Corporate Accountability, Sustainability and Green Finance

Message from the Guest Editors

Green finance is becoming increasingly important for corporations due to changing perspectives around the world. Corporate Sustainability, as a strategic approach that aims to create stakeholder value, is critical for goodwill, enhancing the opportunities, and managing the risks that occur due to economic, social and environmental developments. This Special Issue calls for research covering a wide range of aspects related to accounting and corporate management and their interaction with corporate sustainability and green finance. This type of research responds to the call for an increased awareness these impacts of organizational activities, and strategic and operational decision making. We look forward to receiving your contributions.
