Special Issue

Public Budgeting and Finance

Message from the Guest Editor

The Journal of Risk and Financial Management invites submissions for a Special Issue dedicated to exploring contemporary issues in public finance and budgeting. This Special Issue aims to address the critical financial management challenges faced by public institutions and governments. We welcome papers that examine a wide range of topics related to public finance and budgeting, including but not limited to the following subjects:

- Fiscal policy and public expenditure management;
- Budget process and forecasting;
- Impact of fiscal decentralization on public services;
- Public debt management and sustainability;
- Management of economic and financial risks;
- State and local finance in the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic;
- Budget transparency and accountability;
- Public financial management and sustainable development goals;
- Financial management reforms in developing countries.
