Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

In this Special Issue, we aim to assemble state-of-the-art studies on the integration of bioenergy feedstock production into sustainable landscapes. We invite papers focusing on, but not limited to, the following topics:

- best practices and examples from the field of initiatives that aim to integrate biomass production with other land uses (e.g., agriculture, forestry, conservation);
- modeling studies that assess sustainable bioenergy potentials and/or impact assessments; and
- governance approaches and monitoring systems for sustainable biomass production.

The focus of the studies can vary from local to global scales.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Land is the only open access journal covering all aspects of land science, and it is a pioneering platform for publishing on land system science. Our editorial board is comprised of eminent scholars. We publish high quality research on societally relevant, emerging and innovative topics and results in land system research. It is now one of the top land journals with a significant impact factor, and has a goal to become the best journal in land in the coming years. I strongly recommend Land for your best research publications for a fast dissemination of your research.
