Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

I invite you to submit your paper for open access publication in this Special Issue of Land, “Landscape Planning as a Catalyst for Sustainable Development”. This Special Issue takes the landscape planning–sustainable development nexus as a starting point and focuses on the multiple ways in which access and rights to land relate to planning and management processes...

Based on this, in addition to the aforementioned subjects, the envisioned special issue intends to cover a wide range of topics related to landscape design and sustainability, assessing the impact of different land-uses and landscape management strategies on landscape resilience and sustainability.

Papers submitted to this Special Issue will undergo an impartial peer review process with the aim of rapid and broad dissemination of research findings and results.
