Message from the Guest Editors

To celebrate and highlight the achievements of women in the land research area, this Special Issue will present the land-related work from leading female scientists. We call experienced female scientists, as well as young female scholars, to contribute to, and shed light on, this research.

Full research papers are welcome, as well as short communications, reviews, discussions, and perspective papers. The precondition is that the lead author is female. Potential topics are as follows:

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Land is the only open access journal covering all aspects of land science, and it is a pioneering platform for publishing on land system science. Our editorial board is comprised of eminent scholars. We publish high quality research on societally relevant, emerging and innovative topics and results in land system research. It is now one of the top land journals with a significant impact factor, and has a goal to become the best journal in land in the coming years. I strongly recommend Land for your best research publications for a fast dissemination of your research.
