

Special Issue

Spatial Planning and Territorial Governance of Micro-States and Unconventional Administrative Territories

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue aims to collect contributions on spatial planning and territorial governance experiences in these realities, aiming to fill the gap and enrich the international literature on them and related issues. We invite authors to contribute with evidence-based and comparative papers on spatial planning systems, territorial governance, land use planning, indigenous planning, cross-border community planning practices, etc.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Land is the only open access journal covering all aspects of land science, and it is a pioneering platform for publishing on land system science. Our editorial board is comprised of eminent scholars. We publish high quality research on societally relevant, emerging and innovative topics and results in land system research. It is now one of the top land journals with a significant impact factor, and has a goal to become the best journal in land in the coming years. I strongly recommend Land for your best research publications for a fast dissemination of your research.
