

Special Issue

The Role of Land Policy in Shaping Tourism Development: 2nd Edition

Message from the Guest Editors

The Special Issue aims to gather interdisciplinary research that examines how land policies influence tourism development patterns. It seeks to highlight best practices, innovative approaches, and case studies where land policy has successfully guided sustainable tourism. By fostering a comprehensive understanding, the issue aspires to contribute to the formulation of policies that balance tourism growth with environmental sustainability and community well-being. This Special Issue will welcome manuscripts that link the following themes (but not limited to):

- Impact of Land Use Regulations on Tourism Development
- Case Studies on Sustainable Tourism and Land Policy
- Land Policy Innovations for Environmental Conservation in Tourism
- Community Involvement in Land Use Planning for Tourism
- Balancing Tourism Growth with Land Resource Management.

We look forward to receiving your original research articles and reviews.
