

Special Issue

Heritage Landscapes, Their Inventory, Management and Future

Message from the Guest Editors

The goal of this Special Issue is to collect papers (original research articles and review papers) to give insights about the development of professional interest in heritage landscapes, their current state, knowledge, identification, mapping, evaluation, protection and planning. This Special Issue will welcome manuscripts that link the following themes:

- Definition of heritage landscapes (scaling over time) and typology;
- Inventory and mapping procedures (criteria, indicators, resolution, outlining, etc.);
- Best practice (examples of area management, advertising, legislative approach, administration, etc.);
- Planning procedures applied in heritage landscapes.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Land is the only open access journal covering all aspects of land science, and it is a pioneering platform for publishing on land system science. Our editorial board is comprised of eminent scholars. We publish high quality research on societally relevant, emerging and innovative topics and results in land system research. It is now one of the top land journals with a significant impact factor, and has a goal to become the best journal in land in the coming years. I strongly recommend Land for your best research publications for a fast dissemination of your research.
