New Pattern of Land Use in the Context of Sharing Economy

Message from the Guest Editors

The Special Issue entitled “New Patterns of Land Use in the Context of Sharing Economy” encourages researchers to explore the assessment, planning, management, market mechanism, and policy reform involved in land sharing. We are looking for original research articles as well as comprehensive review articles addressing the recent advances and/or challenges in land sharing, including but not limited to the following:

- Overviews of state-of-the-art theories and challenges in sustainable land use
- Potential analysis of abandoned areas under shared development
- Case studies of green and sustainable roof implementation
- Explorations of specific operation patterns and policy reform for land use in the context of sharing economy
- Renewable energy infrastructures planning in urban areas
- Urban shared transportation infrastructure planning
- Eco energy farm
- Big data and GIS in shared land use

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Land is the only open access journal covering all aspects of land science, and it is a pioneering platform for publishing on land system science. Our editorial board is comprised of eminent scholars. We publish high quality research on societally relevant, emerging and innovative topics and results in land system research. It is now one of the top land journals with a significant impact factor, and has a goal to become the best journal in land in the coming years. I strongly recommend Land for your best research publications for a fast dissemination of your research.
