Advances in Australian English

Message from the Guest Editors

We invite you to submit research to the upcoming Special Issue of Languages, entitled "Advances in Australian English", a selection of articles bringing together cutting-edge, multidisciplinary research in Australian English(es) from the perspectives of sociolinguistics, language variation and change, phonetics, forensic linguistics, language contact and multilingualism, and language acquisition. Conferences and colloquia such as Language Variation and Change-Australia, the Forum on Englishes in Australia, Sociophonetic Variability in the English Varieties of Australia (SocioPhonAus), and the Australian Linguistic Society annual meeting, as well as special sessions at the Australasian International Conference on Speech Science and Technology (SST), are by now well-established outlets for the latest linguistic research in Australian English(es)...

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

Languages (ISSN 2226-471X) is now in its eighth year since its inception in 2015. It is an Open Access journal which seeks to stimulate debates on key issues in languages and linguistics. We welcome papers at the cutting edge of different fields, ranging from applied linguistics to descriptive and theoretical linguistics. Submissions may consist of research articles and critical reviews as well as proposals for Special Issues where multi-disciplinary approaches and different perspectives on current issues are explored. We invite you to consider Languages as a forum for sharing your work.
