

Special Issue

MOBILE 2019

Message from the Guest Editor

Hosted by the iconic Lycée Français de New York, MOBILE (<http://mobile.lfny.org/>) is a new international conference that gathers scholars and practitioners from all over the world in a forum about the impact of new technologies on learning and teaching of languages. Language learning occurs in various environments, in dedicated regular classes as well as in those integrating language and subject matter. Whatever the setting, the conference will focus on how technology shapes the experiences of learners, as well as teachers in primary school, secondary school and beyond. Registered presenters are encouraged to submit full-length articles in English to the Special Issue “MOBILE 2019” (mdpi.com/si/17008) which will comprise selected papers from the conference edited by the Conference Chair, . The deadline for submissions to the Special Issue is 15 December 2018. Manuscripts can be submitted at <http://susy.mdpi.com>. They will be peer-reviewed and published online immediately after acceptance.

About the Journal

Message from the Editorial Board

Languages (ISSN 2226-471X) is now in its eighth year since its inception in 2015. It is an Open Access journal which seeks to stimulate debates on key issues in languages and linguistics. We welcome papers at the cutting edge of different fields, ranging from applied linguistics to descriptive and theoretical linguistics. Submissions may consist of research articles and critical reviews as well as proposals for Special Issues where multi-disciplinary approaches and different perspectives on current issues are explored. We invite you to consider Languages as a forum for sharing your work.
