Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

Life was first launched back in 2011, and this year, its tenth volume is scheduled to be released. To mark this significant anniversary, a Special Issue edited by the editorial board members is inviting all prominent scientists in the field for contributions. This Special Issue is dedicated to the publication on all aspects of life sciences. This comprises the interaction of blood and tissue cells with foreign body molecules or materials, infection processes, pathogens, Infection and Immunity, astrobiology, biochemistry, biodiversity, bioinformatics, biomedicine, biophysics and all other aspects of life sciences. We very much look forward to your valued contributions to make this Special Issue a unique resource for future researchers from the exciting field of life sciences.
