Orthopaedics and Traumatology: Surgery and Research: 2nd Edition

Message from the Guest Editors

The first volume of this Special Issue, entitled “Orthopaedics and Traumatology: Surgery and Research”, can be found at: https://www.mdpi.com/journal/life/special_issues/T949QI3IFW. In 2024, we would like to open Volume II of this Special Issue in order to collect high-quality submissions in the Medical Research Section.

The current Special Issue centers on contemporary surgical or conservative treatment options in Orthopaedic Surgery and Traumatology, with a specific emphasis on the lower extremities, including the hip, knee, and ankle joints.

We seek to compile high-quality studies pertaining to both reconstructive surgery and orthopaedic trauma. Our aim is to establish as Special Issue encompassing diverse aspects, ranging from biomedical research to the surgical or conservative treatment of lower-extremity conditions, including potential complications. Ultimately, we aim to contribute valuable insights to the literature and foster the exchange of knowledge within the scientific community on this subject.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Life (ISSN 2075-1729) is an international, peer-reviewed open access journal that publishes scientific studies related to fundamental themes in life sciences. Some papers are published individually, while others are submitted for inclusion in special issues with guest editors. You are invited to contribute a research article, essay, or a review to be considered for publication.
