Animal Reproduction and Health

Message from the Guest Editors

We would like to invite you to contribute to our Special Issue on “Animal Reproduction and Health”. Increased research is vital to advancing our understanding and knowledge so that we can effectively manage animals, promote optimum health and wellbeing, and maximise animal welfare. The purpose of this Special Issue is to present the latest research in the field of animal reproduction and health, and we welcome original research articles and reviews that cover a wide range of themes, including, but not limited to, the following:

- Heritability of disease;
- Reproduction control, especially advances in our understanding of the use of alternative methods of reproduction control for animals;
- Reproductive disease;
- Epidemiology of disease;
- Management of disease in large populations of animals;
- Reproductive performance: maximising reproductive potential, animal health and survival;
- Fertility;
- Advances in diagnostics and treatment;
- Pregnancy and lactation;
- Neonatal care;
- Growth and development.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Life (ISSN 2075-1729) is an international, peer-reviewed open access journal that publishes scientific studies related to fundamental themes in life sciences. Some papers are published individually, while others are submitted for inclusion in special issues with guest editors. You are invited to contribute a research article, essay, or a review to be considered for publication.
