Inflammation and Natural Products: 2nd Edition

Message from the Guest Editors

We are pleased to announce the second edition of the Special Issue of Life, titled "Inflammation and Natural Products: 2nd Edition". Terrestrial and marine environments continue to be inexhaustible sources of active compounds and extracts that have been employed in medicine throughout history. This Special Issue welcomes the submission of full papers, and review articles on natural products (from terrestrial or marine sources), as well as secondary metabolites from microorganisms and plants that exhibit significant anti-inflammatory activity. This Special Issue aims to serve as a reference text for researchers and academia studying natural products and their pharmacological activities. We invite researchers working in the field of natural products and related pathways to publish their recent findings in this second edition of the Special Issue of Life. We look forward to your contributions and are confident that this Special Issue will provide valuable information and new insights in the field of inflammation and natural products.
