

Special Issue

Asian American Model Minority: Complicity, Victimization, and Defiance

Message from the Guest Editors

We are pleased to invite you to contribute to this Special Issue. In light of the Black Lives Matter movement, anti-Asian violence in the wake of COVID-19, and the escalating tension between the United States and China, we would like to explore Asian American complicity with hegemonic cultures (both the US and China) in discriminating against people of African descent and against Asian ethnic groups that do not measure up to the capitalist definition of success. This Special Issue aims to address the conundrum of the Asian American model minority and to amend the too-common association of Asian Americans with people of Far East descent only. In this Special Issue, original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following: media representation, the 1992 Los Angeles uprising, the Black Lives Matter movement, law and literature, the COVID-19 pandemic, gender/sexuality/passing, comparative religions, ecocriticism, (post)colonialism, and various wars (WWII, the Vietnam War, the Korean War, trade wars, etc.).
