

Special Issue

Design and Fabrication of Wear-Resistant Alloys

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue aims to further enhance the influence of Materials in the academic world, and to provide scholars and engineers with a frontier work of wear-resistant materials, a research hotspot of significant potential. In this Special Issue that concerns the design and preparation of wear-resistant materials, we hope that you will actively contribute to the latest academic achievements and provide valuable opinions or suggestions. The staff of the Special Issue will serve you wholeheartedly and provide you with high-quality, efficient reviews and other process services. Finally, it is my sincere wish that Materials continues to grow and develop.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Materials (ISSN 1996-1944) was launched in 2008. The journal covers twenty-five comprehensive topics: biomaterials, energy materials, advanced composites, advanced materials characterization, porous materials, manufacturing processes and systems, advanced nanomaterials and nanotechnology, smart materials, thin films and interfaces, catalytic materials, carbon materials, materials chemistry, materials physics, optics and photonics, corrosion, construction and building materials, materials simulation and design, electronic materials, advanced and functional ceramics and glasses, metals and alloys, soft matter, polymeric materials, quantum materials, mechanics of materials, green materials, general. Materials provides a unique opportunity to contribute high quality articles and to take advantage of its large readership.
