Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

Today, artificial intelligence is an unavoidable part of everyday life. It can be used in a wide range of activities, from tourism to sports. One of the fields where the application of artificial intelligence shows significant room for improvement is certainly healthcare. This Special Issue is intended for the publication of research and review papers dealing with the application of artificial intelligence in healthcare. Furthermore, the public publication and description of new healthcare datasets is encouraged.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The journal Mathematics publishes high-quality, refereed papers that treat both pure and applied mathematics. The journal highlights articles devoted to the mathematical treatment of questions arising in physics, chemistry, biology, statistics, finance, computer science, engineering and sociology, particularly those that stress analytical/algebraic aspects and novel problems and their solutions. One of the missions of the journal is to serve mathematicians and scientists through the prompt publication of significant advances in any branch of science and technology, and to provide a forum for the discussion of new scientific developments.
