Neural Networks and Complex Dynamics in Computational Neuroscience

Message from the Guest Editors

We are pleased to announce this Special Issue of Mathematics. “Neural Networks and Complex Dynamics in Computational Neuroscience” is a broad topic; it can be studied from many different perspectives, focusing on mathematics, biology, or computation, as well as the fundamentals and applications. We welcome studies on ‘Neural and Complex Networks’ related (but not limited) to the following topics:

- Synchronization, coherence resonance, chimera states, and other dynamical features;
- Bifurcation theory, basins of attraction, stability analysis;
- Perturbation theory, external forces and noise;
- Artificial intelligence: analysis and applications.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The journal Mathematics publishes high-quality, refereed papers that treat both pure and applied mathematics. The journal highlights articles devoted to the mathematical treatment of questions arising in physics, chemistry, biology, statistics, finance, computer science, engineering and sociology, particularly those that stress analytical/algebraic aspects and novel problems and their solutions. One of the missions of the journal is to serve mathematicians and scientists through the prompt publication of significant advances in any branch of science and technology, and to provide a forum for the discussion of new scientific developments.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), RePEc, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q1 (Mathematics) / CiteScore - Q1 (General Mathematics)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 18.4 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.4 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).
