Decision Analysis and Optimization in the Operations Research and Management Science

Message from the Guest Editor

The Special Issue "Decision Analysis and Optimization in the Operations Research and Management Science" highlights the latest advancements in decision-making approaches, methodologies, and their applications in improving system efficiency. It covers various decision analysis techniques, including classic and emerging optimization methods, multi-criteria decision-making (MCDM), and heuristic approaches. This issue welcomes theoretical advancements, empirical studies, and case applications demonstrating the impact of decision analysis and optimization in diverse fields such as logistics, supply chain management, finance, healthcare, and industrial engineering.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The journal Mathematics publishes high-quality, refereed papers that treat both pure and applied mathematics. The journal highlights articles devoted to the mathematical treatment of questions arising in physics, chemistry, biology, statistics, finance, computer science, engineering and sociology, particularly those that stress analytical/algebraic aspects and novel problems and their solutions. One of the missions of the journal is to serve mathematicians and scientists through the prompt publication of significant advances in any branch of science and technology, and to provide a forum for the discussion of new scientific developments.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:
indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), RePEc, and other databases.

Journal Rank:
JCR - Q1 (Mathematics) / CiteScore - Q1 (General Mathematics)

Rapid Publication:
manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 18.4 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.4 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).
