Multidisciplinary Approaches and Recent Advances in Anesthesiology and Critical Care

Message from the Guest Editors

We invite you to contribute to this Special Issue, "Multidisciplinary Approaches and Recent Advances in Anesthesiology and Critical Care", which aims to showcase the latest developments and collaborative strategies in patient care within the fields of anesthesiology and critical care medicine. The fields of anesthesiology and critical care are evolving rapidly, necessitating the hand-in-hand expertise of diverse healthcare professionals. We invite authors to contribute with original research papers, and all types of review articles, including systematic reviews and meta-analyses that explore a wide range of topics related to recent advancements and multidisciplinary approaches in anesthesiology and critical care. This Special Issue is addressed to all medical practitioners of anesthesia and critical care, as well as to all professionals working in other related medical specialties.
