Latest Advances in Asthma and COPD

Message from the Guest Editors

Asthma and chronic obstructive pulmonary disease (COPD) are two of the most prevalent respiratory diseases globally, affecting millions of people and posing significant healthcare challenges. They are complex respiratory conditions with many aspects that are not yet fully understood. This Special Issue aims to showcase the most recent developments in the understanding, management, and treatment of these conditions. We invite researchers to contribute their original research, reviews, and systematic reviews to improving the quality of the management of patients affected by asthma and COPD. Topics of Interest: We welcome submissions on a broad range of topics related to asthma and COPD, including but not limited to:

- Advances in diagnostic techniques;
- Innovative therapies;
- Personalized medicine approaches;
- Epidemiology and public health;
- Emerging Technologies.
