Dear Colleagues,

I am pleased to announce the winner of the Membranes Travel Award for 2017:

The Travel Award has been granted to Dr. Ludovic Dumeé, a postdoctoral researcher at the Institute for Frontier Materials, at Deakin University, Waurn Ponds, Victoria, Australia.

Dr. Ludovic Dumeé's main research interests focus on the coalescence of metal and metal oxide nano-particles to form nano-porous metal frameworks with enhanced plasmonic, catalytic and photo-catalytic properties for application in wastewater treatment and mixed solvent separation.

On behalf of the Membranes team, I would like to congratulate Dr. Ludovic Dumeé for all his achievements!

Prof. Dr. Spas D. Kolev
Editor-in-Chief
The University of Melbourne, Victoria, Australia
