Current Research on Occupational Safety and Health

Message from the Guest Editors

We are pleased to invite you to submit manuscripts showing your current research on occupational safety and health. Occupational safety and health is a growing interdisciplinary field focused on protecting and maintaining the health and wellbeing of workers in the workplace through a variety of interventions. This call for papers is open to researchers in any subject areas related to occupational safety and health; both original research articles and reviews are welcome. Research areas may include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Work-life balance;
- Exposures in the workplace;
- Industry-specific topics;
- Mental wellbeing in the workplace;
- Organizational climate;
- Safety climate;
- Human factors and design;
- Technologies' impact on health and wellbeing in the workplace;
- Risky behaviors in the workplace;
- Built workplace environment;
- Injury prevention;
- Interventions in the workplace;
- Measurement tools.

We look forward to receiving your contributions.
