Metabolomics – Workflows, Methods and Applications

Message from the Guest Editors

The 1st Nordic Metabolomics Conference is the inaugural annual meeting of the newly established Nordic Metabolomics Society. The conference aims to highlight and discuss the latest metabolomics research in the Nordic countries and abroad. We welcome papers focused on metabolomics workflows, metabolite identification and quantification, metabolomics in nutrition, environmental and plant metabolomics, and particularly, but not exclusively, extended conference papers from the Nordic Metabolomics Conference 2018. More information about the Nordic Metabolomics Conference 2018 can be found at: <https://www.oru.se/NordicMetabolomicsConference>

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The metabolome is the result of the combined effects of genetic and environmental influences on metabolic processes. Metabolomic studies can provide a global view of metabolism and thereby improve our understanding of the underlying biology. Advances in metabolomic technologies have shown utility for elucidating mechanisms which underlie fundamental biological processes including disease pathology. Metabolites is proud to be part of the development of metabolomics and we look forward to working with many of you to publish high quality metabolomic studies.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, Embase, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Biochemistry and Molecular Biology) / CiteScore - Q2 (Endocrinology, Diabetes and Metabolism)

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 14.4 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 3.6 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the first half of 2025).
