

Special Issue

Feature Papers in Microbial Biofilms

Message from the Guest Editors

There is still plenty to learn regarding biofilms, so the aim of this Special Issue is to collect updated reviews as well as original research articles based on:

- The mechanisms underlying the formation of pathogenic biofilms;
- The resistance/tolerance of biofilm-embedded microorganisms to antimicrobials;
- The interaction of viruses and bacteria within sessile communities;
- The development of effective tools to detect biofilm-associated infections;
- The identification of new anti-biofilm strategies.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

"Microorganism" merges the idea of the very small with the idea of the evolving reproducing organism is a unifying principle for the discipline of microbiology. Our journal recognizes the broadly diverse yet connected nature of microorganisms and provides an advanced publishing forum for original articles from scientists involved in high-quality basic and applied research on any prokaryotic or eukaryotic microorganism, and for research on the ecology, genomics and evolution of microbial communities as well as that exploring cultured microorganisms in the laboratory.

Author Benefits

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, PubAg, CAPlus / SciFinder, AGRIS, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q2 (Microbiology) / CiteScore - Q1 (Microbiology (medical))

Rapid Publication:

manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a first decision is provided to authors approximately 20 days after submission; acceptance to publication is undertaken in 2.9 days (median values for papers published in this journal in the second half of 2025).
