Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

I am pleased to announce this Special Issue, which will be a collection of high-quality papers on food chemistry from invited scholars and the Editorial Board Members. Our aim is to provide a platform for sharing insights and developments in the field of food chemistry research, and a venue for networking and communication between scholars.

We will accept submissions of original research articles and comprehensive review papers, grounded in sound science, that addresses the current critical issues in this field and highlights novel concepts.

Please note that all papers will undergo a thorough peerreview process, and if successful, will be published in a fully open-access mode.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the premier open access journal dedicated to experimental organic chemistry, and now in its 25th year of publication, the papers published in Molecules span from classical synthetic methodology to natural product isolation and characterization, as well as physicochemical studies and the applications of these molecules as pharmaceuticals, catalysts and novel materials. Pushing the boundaries of the discipline, we invite papers on multidisciplinary topics bridging biochemistry, biophysics and materials science, as well as timely reviews and topical issues on cutting edge fields in all these areas.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, Reaxys, CaPlus / SciFinder, MarinLit, AGRIS, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Chemistry, Multidisciplinary) / CiteScore - Q1 (Chemistry (miscellaneous))
