Polysaccharides for Nutraceuticals and Future Foods

Message from the Guest Editors

The 2025 International Conference on Polysaccharides for Nutraceuticals and Future Foods (ICPNFF-2025)

aims to provide a unique opportunity for scientists and professionals to share their ideas and findings regarding the discovery, function and application of polysaccharides for human health and food sustainability. It is a medium-sized conference that will welcome ~300 participants from all over the world. The conference program comprises main and parallel sessions for the presentation of plenary and specific lectures by eminent and outstanding scholars, as well as talks and posters by front-line researchers and postgraduate students. The conference program is highly interdisciplinary, and will encompass the fields of polymers, food and health sciences, and the application of polysaccharides for the development of nutraceutical products and sustainable materials. This Special Issue is dedicated to the high-quality papers presented at ICPNFF-2025.
