Nutritional Therapies in Clinical Practice, Management and Care

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue, "Nutritional Therapies in Clinical Practice, Management and Care", aims to provide a comprehensive overview of the current state of knowledge in the field of nutritional therapies and their application in clinical practice and care. It covers various aspects of nutritional therapies, including their role in disease prevention, management, and treatment. It also discusses the challenges and opportunities in implementing nutritional therapies in clinical settings and the need for further research to improve their effectiveness and safety. This Special Issue is a valuable resource for healthcare professionals, researchers, and policymakers interested in the role of nutritional therapies in improving patient outcomes and overall healthcare quality.
