

Special Issue

Nutrition and Physical Exercise in the Patients with Cancer

Message from the Guest Editor

For this Special Issue, we invite papers that expand our knowledge on the role of nutrition and physical exercise in combination across the entire cancer trajectory, involving patients from prehabilitation to the palliative stage of the disease. Especially, articles focusing on older cancer patients, the use of digital platforms and patients with severe muscle-mass depletion at any stage of the disease are of special interest. We encourage authors to submit articles with both qualitative and quantitative designs (systematic reviews and meta-analyses, randomized controlled trials, other types of intervention and feasibility studies, protocol papers and observational studies).
