Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

The aim of this Special Issue is to create a collection of papers that address diverse areas of dental public health (community dentistry) with a focus on global health. Submissions regarding, but not limited to, oral epidemiology, oral health policy, oral health education, dental workforce development, dental care professions education, dental health insurance, neglected tropical oral diseases, and dental sociology are highly welcome.

Diverse manuscript types, including comprehensive narrative reviews, systematic reviews, bibliometric analyses, surveys, randomized control trials, commentaries, letters to editors, etc., can be submitted to this Special Issue.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Oral is an official, peer-reviewed publication from MDPI, which deals with the key issues of oral health and its related fields. It allows for the dissemination of scientific research focused on emerging problems in the fields of dentistry and oral health, providing a forum to promote scientific information. Indeed, the need to face emerging problems, such as the progressive aging of the population and the impact of technological progress on healthcare, represents some pillars on which to build novel therapeutic strategies in the field of dentistry. Oral provides a great opportunity to contribute to progress in the field of oral health through the distribution of high-quality articles

Author Benefits
