Current Issues in Oral Health

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue of Oral aims to amalgamate highquality review papers in all fields of oral health research. We encourage investigators working in these areas to contribute reviews that highlight the latest and most significant developments in their research field and to invite relevant experts and colleagues to do so as well. The scope of this Special Issue includes, but is not limited to:

- oral surgery;
- periodontics;
- orthodontics;
- endodontics;
- prosthodontics;
- oral cancer;
- dental materials;
- dental public health;
- oral biology;
- oral pathology;
- oral/dental epidemiology;
- digital dentistry.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Oral is an official, peer-reviewed publication from MDPI, which deals with the key issues of oral health and its related fields. It allows for the dissemination of scientific research focused on emerging problems in the fields of dentistry and oral health, providing a forum to promote scientific information. Indeed, the need to face emerging problems, such as the progressive aging of the population and the impact of technological progress on healthcare, represents some pillars on which to build novel therapeutic strategies in the field of dentistry. Oral provides a great opportunity to contribute to progress in the field of oral health through the distribution of high-quality articles
