Message from the Guest Editors

Bioactive compounds, as natural primary and secondary metabolites, are used for the production of natural pharmaceuticals due to their pro-health properties. In order to confirm their identity, modern chromatographic techniques are used to allow for accurate quantitative and qualitative identification of the above-mentioned phytochemicals and their natural products.

Therefore, for this Special Issue, we will publish studies concerning the latest scientific news, insights, and advances in the field of innovation of liquid chromatography for the analysis of bioactive compounds for pharmaceutical interest. Original research articles, short communications, and critical review articles dealing with the extraction and identification of bioactive compounds from natural matrices with biological and pharmaceutical interest are welcome. The information presented will arouse considerable interest among a large group of readers from different disciplines and research fields.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Because of your expertise in the field of drug sciences, I kindly invite you to consider publishing your current work, in the form of a research article or a review, in the open access electronic journal Pharmaceuticals.

Pharmaceuticals is characterized by an active editorial board and a dynamic editorial staff. Manuscripts are peer-reviewed and a final decision is provided to authors within 4–6 weeks after submission. Papers are published on the web immediately after acceptance. For details on the submission process or any other matter, please do not hesitate to contact us.

We hope to handle your contribution to Pharmaceuticals soon.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges \(APC\) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE \(Web of Science\), PubMed, PMC, Embase, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Pharmacology & Pharmacy) / CiteScore - Q2 (Pharmaceutical Science)
