Feature Reviews in Pharmaceutical Technology, Manufacturing and Devices

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue aims to provide a platform for comprehensive reviews on the latest advances, challenges, and future directions in pharmaceutical technology, manufacturing processes, and drug delivery devices. Topics of interest include innovations in drug formulation, nanotechnology applications, continuous manufacturing, process optimization, quality control, regulatory strategies, and the development of advanced drug delivery devices (e.g., injectors, inhalers, and wearable devices). Special emphasis will be placed on the integration of emerging technologies, such as 3D printing, artificial intelligence, machine learning, and automation, to enhance product design, manufacturing efficiency, and patient outcomes. Contributions should aim to synthesize current knowledge, identify trends, and provide insights into translational and clinical applications. We invite researchers and industry professionals to contribute feature reviews that critically evaluate advancements in pharmaceutical technology, manufacturing, and devices, promoting innovation and collaboration in these rapidly evolving fields.
